

John R. Kuhn, MD started his medical career at the University of Kansas School of Medicine in Lawrence, Kansas where he earned his medical degree in 1980. He completed his family practice internship at KU and his otolaryngology residency at the University of Oklahoma in Norman, Oklahoma in 1985.

Board certified in otolaryngology head and neck surgery, Dr. Kuhn can be seen practicing at HPI Community Hospital, INTEGRIS Baptist Medical Center, and at his private practice in North Oklahoma City. He was recently appointed the Oklahoma Health Professionals Program Director.

When he's not saving lives, Dr. Kuhn enjoys wake surfing, hunting and fishing, sporting clays, wood working, or relaxing with his wife of 20 years, his three children, and grandchild.