

Jonathan K. Bushman, DO is a 2010 graduate of Oklahoma State University College of Osteopathic Medicine. He returned to northwest Oklahoma for Family Medicine residency training through Integris Bass Baptist Health where he graduated as chief resident in 2013. He currently practices family medicine in Enid in a Direct Primary Care practice as well as serving medical directorships in county jail, home health, and hospice.

Dr. Bushman currently serves as Vice President of the Oklahoma Osteopathic Association and Board member of the Oklahoma Educational Foundation for Osteopathic Medicine. He is newly appointed to the Physician Manpower Training Commission in Oklahoma. He also serves on local community boards with the NW Oklahoma Osteopathic Foundation, Cherokee Strip Community Foundation, and Enid Chamber of Commerce.

Dr. Bushman is blessed to have the support of his beautiful wife Andrea, and he is a proud father of Avery (15), Aidan (12), and Andrew (1).
