

Dennis J Carter DO, FACOFP, is a 1987 graduate of OSUCHS and is Board Certified in Family Medicine. Dr. Carter has practiced in Poteau, Oklahoma, for the last 34 years with an emphasis on geriatric medicine

Dr. Carter has served a seven-year term on the Oklahoma Board of Osteopathic Examiners and was recently appointed to fill the unexpired term of the late Dale Derby, DO. Dr. Carter has served on the Board's Review Committee. Dr. Carter has previously served as the President of the Oklahoma Osteopathic Association for 2006-2007. He has served on the Oklahoma Education Foundation for Osteopathic Medicine's Board of Trustees.

Dr. Carter and his wife Sheri have two daughters (Amy Wilson DO and Sara Carter), son-in-law Brock Wilson DO, and four grandchildren (Carter, Tucker, Brady, and Grant).