

Elizabeth A. Fullbright has been an investigator with the Board of Osteopathic Examiners since January 2023. Prior to this she spent 9 years as an agent with the Oklahoma Attorney General's Office where she was assigned to the Multi-County Grand Jury. She has experience investigating and assisting on investigations related to consumer protection, public corruption, cold case homicide, and white collar crime.

Before going to work for the state she spent four years as a patrolman at a municipal police department. She is a CLEET certified defensive tactics instructor and she teaches police cadets in the basic academy as well as continuing education for current officers. In her abundance of spare time, Fullbright and her husband own a Royce Gracie affiliated jiu jitsu school in Oklahoma City where they teach 5 days a week.
