

Robert David Hogg, DO, is an osteopathic physician employed as a staff psychiatrist with the Eastern Oklahoma VA medical center in Tulsa. His clinical work focuses on ketamine treatment for treatment-resistant depression and suicidality, medication management for a community-based serious mental illness population team, supervision of psychiatry residents, and clinical consultation for the dialectical behavior therapy (DBT) team. Dr. Hogg is a graduate of Oklahoma State University College of Osteopathic Medicine.