

Ross E. Pope, DO, FAAO, graduated from the OSU - College of Osteopathic Medicine and Surgery in 1981. He went on to complete a rotating internship at Hillcrest Health Center and started private practice in Oklahoma City in late 1982. He became Board Certified in Special Proficiency in Osteopathic Manipulative Medicine in 1994 and earned a Fellowship from the American Academy of Osteopathy in 2002.

Dr. Pope has been in practice for over 40 years. He and wife Patty, who is a nurse, founded the Back & Posture Clinic of Oklahoma in Oklahoma City in 1993, where they have continued to practice for the last 30 years.

Dr. Pope has always been interested in teaching Osteopathic Practices and Principles. He began teaching as an adjunct clinical professor at the OSU Center for Health Science in 1982 and has continued to be a preceptor for Osteopathic medical students, residents and fellows. He has lectured at several local, state and national venues during his 40-year career.
