

V. Ray Cordry, DO, is a Northcentral Oklahoma native who graduated from Phillips University in Enid, Oklahoma. He attended the Kansas City University College of Osteopathic Medicine after his undergraduate education. Dr. Cordry performed a rotating internship in Tulsa, a pediatric residency, then a psychiatric residency at the University of Kansas School of Medicine in Wichita, Kansas. He continued his education by performing a one-year child & adolescent fellowship at the University of Oklahoma Health Science Center.

Board-certified in psychiatry, Dr. Cordry's experience includes rural primary care and emergency medicine, psychiatry medical directorships, and teaching osteopathic and allopathic students.

Dr. Cordry's special interest is physical and mental health treatment in rural Oklahoma.