

Maryam Shambayati, DO, FAOCP, FAAP earned her Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from the University of North Texas Health Science Center Texas College of Osteopathic Medicine in 2012. In 2015, she completed her completed her pediatrics residency at the University of Texas at Houston followed by pediatric gastroenterology fellowship at the University of Oklahoma. Board certified in pediatrics and gastroenterology, Dr. Shambayati is a pediatric gastroenterologist for INTEGRIS Baptist Hospital.

Dr. Shambayati believes every patient is unique and is not willing to give a one size fits all approach to medicine. She likes to provide care as unique as each child.