

Danny E. Thomason, DO, AAHIV, is a 2001 graduate from the Oklahoma State University College of Osteopathic Medicine in Tulsa, OK. He stayed in Tulsa after graduation to complete his family medicine internship and residency. Board-certified in family medicine and hospice and palliative medicine, Dr. Thomason is the chief medical informatics officer and staff physician at the Utica Park Clinic in Tulsa, OK.

As the Chief Medical Informatics Officer, Dr. Thomason's passion is using technology to manage patient populations effectively and improve health outcomes including patient satisfaction while reducing healthcare waste and lowering cost.