

Patrick Cody, DO, MPH, FACOEP, is a board certified emergency physician practicing within the Norman Regional Health System. He is the founding program director for the Emergency Medicine Residency Program in Norman. Additionally, he is the Medical Director for EMSStat ambulance service, the Cities of Norman, Moore and Noble Fire Departments, the Cities of Norman, Moore and Shawnee Communications Center, LifeNet EMS in Stillwater, Oklahoma, McClain-Grady County EMS and the Gomer Jones Cardiac Care Clinic inside the University of Oklahoma Gaylord Family Stadium. He serves as the co-medical director for REACT EMS in Shawnee, Oklahoma, and is the team physician for the Norman

Police Department SWAT team.