

Ashton Clayborn, DO, is the program director of Choctaw Nation Family Medicine Residency in Talihina, OK. She is a graduate of Oklahoma State University College of Osteopathic Medicine and completed her family medicine residency training at Choctaw Nation.

Dr. Clayborn is passionate about teaching, preventive medicine, and care for all ages, advocacy and community involvement. She resides in Kinta, OK with her husband and four children who enjoy raising cattle on their small farm, spending time on Lake Eufaula, and traveling around for various sporting events.