

Amanda Carey, DO, grew up in Cushing, OK and completed her bachelor's degree in Biology at the University of Central Oklahoma in Edmond, OK. She then attended and graduated from the Oklahoma State University College of Osteopathic Medicine where she completed her Family Medicine Residency. After residency, Dr. Carey accepted a faculty position within the Family Medicine Department at OSU. Dr. Carey is currently the Program Director for the OMECO/OSU Family Medicine Residency and the President for Oklahoma ACOFP.

Outside of medicine, Dr. Carey enjoys spending time with her husband and two beautiful daughters, having dinner on a nice patio with lots of sunshine, eating any of the delicious things her husband cooks, and watching documentaries.
