

Michael Chad Owens, DO, is a double board-certified pain specialist and anesthesiologist and founder and CEO of Enid Pain and Spine located in Enid, OK. He completed his internship at Oklahoma University- Tulsa in internal medicine/pediatrics. Then, he completed his anesthesia residency at University Hospitals of Cleveland/Case Western Reserve University School of Medicine where he was honored to serve as chief resident.

Dr. completed his fellowship in advance interventional pain medicine at the prestigious University Hospitals of Cleveland/Case Western Reserve University school of medicine, where he served as chief fellow.

Dr. Owens has given numerous lectures on pain management related topics. He is very passionate about developing a relationship with his patients and developing an individualized treatment plan for them to be more functional and enjoy their life as free from pain is much as possible.

Dr. Owens is very passionate about advancing pain medicine and is constantly striving to offer the most advanced cutting-edge interventional pain procedures for his patient's.

Dr. Owens understands that every patient is unique and requires a unique treatment plan that fits their needs and their lifestyle. His goal to get the patient's quality of life back.