

Jason Keith Miles, DO, is a family practice physician who earned his Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine from the Oklahoma State University College of Osteopathic Medicine and completed his residency at OSU Medical Center. Dr. Miles has always had a passion for mental health. The recent loss of his physician friend to suicide inspired him to bring awareness to this growing problem. He looks forward to working with his colleagues to improve and protect the lives of caregivers now and in the future.

Dr. Miles is married to Shannon, his high-school sweetheart. They have three active children and enjoy watching them in all of their activities.
