

Marcia Walker, MD

Dr. Marcia Menezes Walker, a diagnostic board certified radiologist with a Body Imaging fellowship works for the VA in New Orleans. She loves serving our veterans. She has a faculty appointment at Tulane University and Louisiana State University. Teaching is a passion for her and she often presents lectures to the radiology residents. She also teaches Radiology to the Choctaw Family Medicine residents and to the Memorial Family Medicine Program residents in Biloxi, Mississippi. Dr. Walker serves as the Medical Director of Tulsa Community College Ultrasonography Program. She also teaches Ultrasound at the ultrasonography program at Delgado Community College In New Orleans.

Dr Walker obtained her medical degree at Marshall University Joan C. Edwards School of Medicine in 2003. She completed her radiology residency at Yale University, Bridgeport Hospital in 2008. She completed her Body Imaging Fellowship at the Mount Sinai Hospital in 2010.

Dr. Walker is originally from Brazil. She also has BS and MS in Chemical Engineering from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. She worked as an engineer for 19 years starting Medical School at age 42.